

PLEASE do not change Indiana's "No Call Law"!!! We used to receive anywhere from 5-12 telemarketer's calls A DAY and it was always such a nuisance, expecially when calling from out-of-town to check our messages. Also, because we operate a small business from our home, these unwanted calls tie up phone lines and prevent customers from getting through. The "No Call Law" has eliminated that.